10/01/20	12	TEXT	The court takes judicial notice of the federal, state, and local declarations of emergency based on the COVID-19 pandemic as well as the numerous orders and rules the California Judicial Council and this court have issued to address the public health concerns created by the pandemic. The court also acknowledges the important right of the defendant and the public regarding public access to court proceedings, but finds the public health concerns presently overcome the right to have all parties and the public physically present in the courtroom and therefore public access is being provided by livestreaming these proceedings over the internet as described on the court's website and all counsel are appearing remotely.
	13	TEXT	Pursuant to California Code of Judicial Ethics, Canon 3E(2), the Court disclosed that he is one of 77 alleged victims in felony case no. 19CF0869 that the Office of the Orange County District Attorney is currently prosecuting. The matter alleges defendant Isaac Jones, Jr. threatened or attempted to threaten 77 Orange County judicial officers. After inviting comments from the parties and attorneys, and having received no objections, the court found recusal was not required because he believes that matter will not affect the court's ability to be fair and impartial in this case, and this case is not sufficiently similar to the other matter and does not involve any of the same individuals.
